“ I have not seen John in a few years. He was an important part of my childhood and I have very cherished memories of him, from my childhood. I just discovered his passing. It hurts my heart that he is gone. He was a very gentle and soft spoke man, with such a laid back personality. He will be greatly missed. Sincerely Ronnie Morrison Jr.

“ My time with John "Bear" Bruyere was short. But, not brief enough to not realize what kind of man and father he was. He was the head of a good old fashioned American family who loved and cared for John, just as much as John cared for them. I had the privilege to learn who he was as a young man up until his departure with God. He was a jokster, a mechanic, and electrician, a great musician and father. And, he loved to go fishing, too! I also got to jam with him several times and he taught me a little how to play the Mandolin and Ukelélé. We never did get to go fishing though, actually, and that made me very sad. But, I bet you got a spot next to Jesus on the nicest boat found anywhere John. R. I. P.
