Alberto, or Beto as most of his family and friends called him was a soccer lover at heart. His favorite team was la selección del America. In his younger years he owned an armature soccer team in Houston by the name of Torrinos that won numerous competitions.

Alberto was well known with many contractors in the Houston/Galveston Metro area as he was an independent cement contractor for many years. All who knew Beto know that he had a one of a kind HEART OF GOLD. He will be truly missed.

Aberto Huerta falleció el 19 de abril de 2019 en UTMB Galveston. Le sobreviven sus hermanas Estela Rodríguez y su esposo Isidro Rodríguez, María del Rosario Rodríguez y su esposo Juan Antonio Rodríguez, sus hermanos Juan Huerta y su esposa Sylvia Huerta, su hermano Francisco Huerta y su esposa Cindy Huerta y numerosos sobrinos y sobrinas, familiares y muchos amigos. Su padre Rosendo Huerta, su madre Francisca Huerta Sánchez, su hermano Guadalupe Huerta y su hermana Oralía Reyes proceden a su muerte.

Alberto, o Beto, como la mayoría de sus familiares y amigos lo llamaban, era un amante del fútbol de todo corazón. Su equipo favorito era la selección de América. En sus años más jóvenes fue dueño de un equipo de fútbol de armadura en Houston con el nombre de Torrinós que ganó numerosas competiciones.

Alberto era conocido con muchos contratistas en el área metropolitana de Houston / Galveston ya que durante muchos años fue un contratista independiente de cemento.

Todos los que conocieron a Beto saben que él tenía un CORAZÓN DE ORO único. Será realmente extrañado.
