

Ayan Alejandro Quiroga Zuniga

May 4, 1977 - January 8, 2024

Our dear Ayan Alejandro Quiroga Zúñiga was born the youngest of 11 children on May 4, 1977 in Monterrey, Mexico. As such, he was carefree, fun, friendly, talkative and freewheeling. He loved his family, his roots, his hometown, and of course, his home teams – the Rockets, the Astros and the Texans. But he also loved God, and realized how much he needed him. Despite all the struggles he fought against until the very end, he always acknowledged this to whomever would hear him!

In early 2023, Alex was diagnosed with cancer. He succumbed to pneumonia as a consequence of the disease on the night of January 8, 2024 - less than four months before his 47th birthday. May God welcome our dear Alex into his kingdom, and hold him closely in his loving arms.

Alex is survived by his children, Ray and Lolly Flores and Isaiah Quiroga; his granddaughters, Gabrielle and Selena Flores, and his grandson Robert Moreno Jr.

Surviving siblings, Gabriel (Blanca) Quiroga, Xochitl (Noe) Puente, Gustavo (Emma) Quiroga, Alberto (Dilliana) Quiroga, Angelica Quiroga, Lucano (Nolvia) Quiroga, Gloria (Carlos) Rodriguez, Julián (Laura) Quiroga and Benito (Nora) Quiroga.

Alex is survived by 28 nieces and nephews and a great many beautiful grand nieces and grand nephews.

He is survived by his ex-wife, Michelle Zúñiga.

Alex was preceded in death by his loving parents Gabriel Quiroga and Juliana Zúñiga, his older brother, Martin Quiroga (surviving wife, Magdalena) and his niece, Lydia A Quiroga.
