“ I would like say that Betty was a very kind hearted and caring person. Like I have said before she always treating like one of her own anytime that I was in her house. She new me since i was a little youngster running around with her one of her sons Claudio. As we were friends and still are to this day. She basically seen me grow up. We always had a good catching up conversation everytime we hadnt seen each other for a while. I really feel so bad that she is gone and my Heart and Condolences got out to "All" of her family. And I pray that our Lord will ease the pain and mend everyone's heart. I lost my Father 18 years ago and I know how it feels to lose a loved one. There isnt a blueprint to tell us what to do when something like this happens. We just have to be strong and live our everyday life. It is very unfortunate that she is no longer with us physically like we would like but she will live forver in our hearts and mind. So before I end this I want to share a funny story. One day at was at her house on Shearn St. In the First Ward. I was sitting in the living room and she said to me, "John! Do want an ice cream"? And i said, "yeah". So she went the kitchen and brought me one of those small Blue Bell ice cream. She gave it to me then she said, let me get you a spoon. And she came back with the smallest spoon i' ve ever seen. It was like 3-4 inches long. I grabbed the spoon and held it up and said to her, Dang Betty! It's going to take me forever to finsh this ice cream with this little bitty spoon. And we both just busted out laughing. But it took her a while to stop. She just couldnt get over it. I will always remember that moment in laughter with Betty. She will be dearly missed. We love you Betty.Be free Angel.....:)
