“ Family was extremely important to Cousin Connie. She was determined to have her Houston family visit her Arkansas family as often as possible. That meant making the trip to Arkansas 2 or 3 times a year.

She was generous with her time and whatever she had. I remember a time when she and her granddaughter, Stephanie, came to my home in NW Houston and they made a huge recipe of chocolate chip cookies with my son, Ryan. They made cookies all evening...

I will always fondly remember her as my loving cousin who helped her mother raise me!

God, bless her family during this time of grief over her death.

*Love,
