“ I met Danny through my aunt Jackie Davis that he worked with at Pappadeaux in Hobby Airport. My original prom date ended up not wanting to go anymore and my aunt called Danny immediately to ask if he would be so kind as to be my date. I appreciated his kind sweet soul for taking time out of his evening to accompany my friends and I to dinner and prom. He was such a gentleman and even back then told me about his dreams and aspirations. I have been following him through social medias seeing him work so hard towards said dreams. Danny is dearly missed by not only me but my family and my friends that he became friends with too. Love Allyna Bardney, Friends and Family
