

Deyanira Cavazos Pena

July 16, 1964 - April 7, 2025

It is with deep sorrow that we announce the passing of Deyanira Cavazos Pena, who passed away on Monday, April 7, 2025, in Houston, Texas, after a courageous battle with cancer. Throughout her final year, she faced life's challenges with remarkable strength and a smile, enduring the pain as she fought valiantly until the very end.

She was born on July 16, 1964 in Cd. Mier, Tamaulipas, Mexico to Adan and Ruperta Cavazos. Deya lived a full and vibrant life, marked by her love for traveling, dancing, singing and music. Deyanira's greatest joy in life was the time she spent with her family, and above all, with her daughter Kate, who was the absolute pride and joy of her heart. She poured immense love and care into raising Kate.

Deya's warmth, laughter, and generous spirit left a lasting impression on everyone she met. She will be profoundly missed by her cherished daughter, Kate; her devoted mother, Ruperta (Pety) Cavazos; her brothers: Mario, Noel, and Jorge Cavazos; and a wide circle of family and friends. Deya was preceded in death by her father, Adan Cavazos, and her brother, Adrian Cavazos.

A Light That Never Fades

*She stood so small, yet fierce and bright,
A warrior's heart wrapped in gentle might.
Among her brothers, strong and bold,
She held her ground, a force untold.*

*Her laughter danced like golden rays,
A steady light in darkened days.
Through every storm, through every fight,
She faced the world with fearless sight.*

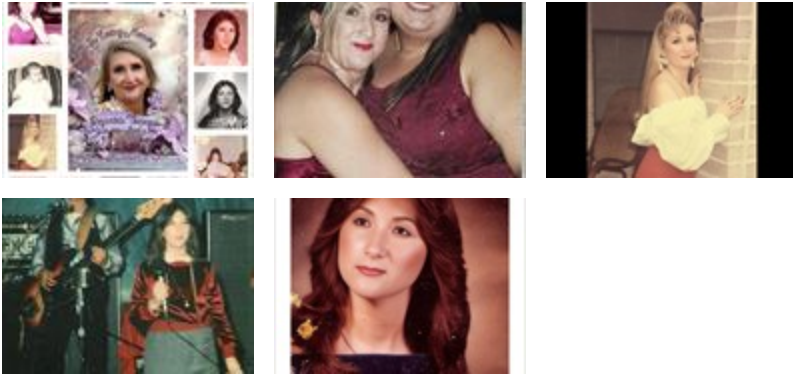

*A mother's love, steadfast and true,
In Kate's embrace, her dreams grew.
Through tireless work, through sleepless nights,
She built a world of warmth and light.*

*Then came a shadow, swift and cold,
A battle fought, though fate took hold.
But love like hers does not erase,
She lingers still, in time and space.*

*In heavenly peace, she rests above,
Reunited with those she loves.
No pain remains, no trials to bear,
Just endless joy, just love to share.*

*And here on earth, her spirit stays,
A guiding star in life's vast maze.
For in our hearts, she still remains—
A light that never fades.*
