“ I will always remember Liz as happy, out going, enjoying life with friends and family! I hear her music inside my house sometimes it could be at different times! I always remember her saying just get in the car and girls (Vanessa, Rayven, Maria Rameriz daughter) would be like where going. She would respond it doesn't matter lets go! Most of the time she would always have someone go with her! When I would do the yard for her parents I hear them joking around with her when she is about to leave! She doesn't hesitate to help the family but always on the go! She always had a smile on her face! You will be missed!

“ Liz was such a amazing person, she was so kind to everyone, many people know that i made her late to our graduation but not much people know how that happend. liz new i was so excited about going and the day of i found myself without a way there knowing i wouldnt be able to walk down the ile both worked so hard for and i got a text from liz asking if i was on my way and when i told her my situation she didnt hesitate to come all the way to spring branch in rush hour traffic for me, thats the kind of person liz was the kind a person that would risk making her own self late to her own graduation that she was prepared for so that a another wouldnt miss theirs, i wouldnt wish to run down the that ile with anyone else, there are so many amazing memories with this girl that only shows just a fraction of how much of a amazing person and friend she is. The night I saw liz before she passed away i remember asking God why he would take such a amazing soul, but I know shes in a amazing place right now looking over all of us.

“ My memories go way back..from picking her up at kindergarten, and watching her become a young lady then soon be the aunt of my daughter Rayven and babysitting her. Whom ended up becoming like a sister to her. Liz was always willing to help out specially if it was for family didn't matter who was feuding with who that day and it didn't matter what time. And she always was on the go and experienceing life. I will miss her.

“ Elizabeth my sweet sister. I will miss you saying "SISTER", I love you so much! Elizabeth grew into a smart, beautiful and loving young lady. Full of life and always getting through obstacles. She was always willing to help. She loved going to church and writing poems. She took her work serious and was proud of it. She also like listening to some of Selena's songs, and her favorite color was Blue. She loved doing her nails and make up. She will be greatly missed and always in my heart and memories.
