

Jose Luis Menjivar

November 13, 1963 - November 12, 2025

Jose Luis Menjivar was a man whose presence brought warmth, laughter, unwavering love, passed away leaving behind a legacy of dedication, kindness and immense strength. Born with a passionate spirit he devoted his life providing for and caring deeply for his family.

Jose found joy in the simple, meaningful moments in life. He nurtured his garden with the same patience and care he offered those he loved. Early mornings in his truck were filled with timeless old classic rock. He'd enjoy watching old movies to pass the time. Though a man of few words he expressed himself through thoughtful actions, a witty sense of humor, and a presence that made others feel at ease. Known for his impeccable style, he was often best dressed anywhere he went; always making good impressions. He loved his culture deeply and felt the most at home when he was Salvador. Jose Luis Menjivar will be remembered as hardworking, thoughtful, loving, stubborn in the best way, and endlessly giving. His memory will continue forever and always in our hearts.
