“ Daddy only you knew the pain within your body. Everyday I'd ask you how do you feel and you would say to me the same as yesterday. Walking in the house everyday and seeing you hurt so much. You taught us to be a strong family and always love each other. You fought the hardest battle you could without any type of treatment or pain medications and not once complained. Like you told us all if and when God says it's time for me to go its time & you were ready. You prepared us months ago in every way possible and even planned your own funeral. Thank you for being the greatest husband, father, grandfather and friend to us all. You will be missed dearly everyday but all your memories & words of advice are within our hearts. Give our Grandma & Grandpa's hugs and kisses from us all. And just as you told us to make sure we take really good care of our Mother por que ella vale mucho siempre sera asi❤️❤️ Today is not a good bye but it's a see you later for one day in the future we shall all be reunited! LO AMO MAS K MUNCHO MI PAPI CHULO SIEMPRE❤️❤️❤️
