“ To the Arellano Family ~ I am so sorry for your loss. Having the known the family for so long and growing up together just around the corner....I have so many memories! The one I remembered yesterday is the time I was being bothered by some guys at a party and Boy was there. He came up to us and said "why y'all messing with my sister?" They looked at him and took off....lol May your memories always bring you comfort. May your faith always give you strength. God Bless!

“Manuel “Boy” Arellano Jr. passed away at his home on, April 1st 2017 at the age of 53.

Boy is predeceased by his mother, Amelia Estrada Arellano.

Priselda Gonzalez Arellano is survived by her loving husband of 6 years.

Boy is lovingly remembered by his 5 children, Manuel Alexander Arellano, Megan Arellano, Angelo Arellano, Kimberly Ann Coronado, Rebecca Marie Pinon.

Boy was well loved by his siblings: Dorothy Estrada Lopez, Linda Arellano Ochoa, Dianne Arellano Reyes, Steve Arellano, Robert Lee Arellano, Gina Arellano Herrera. He was treasured by NUMEROUS Nephews, Nieces and Cousins.

Boy was born in Austin, Texas on April 23, 1963. He attended John H. Regan High School, “The Home of the Bulldog’s” located in Houston Heights.

Boy was an advocate of Houston Sports, Houston Oilers #1, Texans, Astros and Rockets. He was there ...victorious or not. He loved cooking out on the grill during a sunny day singing to his favorite Tejano tunes and dancing to the infamous Disco classics. He lived for the sound of his family’s laughter and had the will of making his life and all surrounded by him comforting and safe. You often heard him say his favorite words...“My Love, My Love, Yes, My Love”
