

Manuel A. Castelan

December 1, 1941 - April 24, 2018

Manuel Andres Castelan passed away at the age of 76 on Tuesday, April 24, 2018. He is survived by his children, Teresa Trevino, Sylvia Romero, Manuel Castelan Jr., Carmen Gonzales; and his sister, Katy Banda.

Manuel was born on December 1, 1941 in Houston, Texas. He grew up in Second Ward and attended Guadalupe Catholic School. Manuel resided in southeast Houston with his first wife, Connie Gonzales and his four children for the first half of his life.

Mr. Castelan worked for Roadway for over 30 years. He was extremely social and made connections with residents in the Southeast area. Fortunately, he was able to work in the same area in which he resided.

Manuel's interests included: watching sports, dancing, eating, and socializing. He seldom missed a game and spent much of his Sundays watching the Texans. Manuel was avid dancer and sought many opportunities to show off his dance moves.

“ Too little space to write all my memories. I was going to quote some of his words but most would be profanity. Ha!! He will hold a place in my heart. I loved him dearly. I could say R.I.P. but who are we kidding!! Save me a place Tio but not to close to the fire. 💜

“ We went at Mi Tierra here in San Antonio, and when the Mariachis asked if you wanted to hear a song you told them they had audition first so we would get a free song out of it. Never a dull moment with you Tio. "Heroes are remembered, but Legends live forever"
