June 28, 1951 - March 9, 2026

Marcia Lou Kettle, born June 28, 1951, in Houston, passed away peacefully on March 9, 2026, surrounded by the love of her family.

Marcia was born to the late John Edwin Kettle and Louise Seabrook Breedlove. She was also preceded in death by her beloved life partner, Carolyn Seber, and her brother, John Kettle.

Marcia is survived by her five devoted children: Kathryn Kettle, Keli Kettle, Keri Kettle, Randall Kettle and her wife Jennifer Kettle, and Morgan Kettle Rivera and her husband Diego Marin. She is lovingly remembered by her grandchildren, Tyler Holmes, Rori Kettle, Harper Marin, and Carter Marin, and was blessed to see her first great-grandson, Oliver Holmes.

Marcia will be remembered for her strength, humor, generosity, and her unwavering dedication to children and families who past through the doors of the schools she worked for. She loved her five girls and she was their number one supporter in life. Her legacy lives on in the many lives she shaped and in the family who loved her deeply.

“Her spirit was larger than life, and though she is gone from our sight, she will never be gone from the lives she shaped and the hearts that loved her.”
