“ I first met Monica at Camp YOLO, a camp devoted to making the lives of cancer kids better for a weekend. We became great friends, as we were in the same age group, and our cabins did most of the activities together. We both climbed the rock wall and did the zip line for the first time that year. Later at the dance, we danced together and had a great time. Monica was a great friend; a very bright and positive light in the world. Sometimes, the worst events happen to the greatest people, as was the case with Monica. Monica, you will be missed, rest in peace.

*Love,
