

Patrick Robert Miller

April 18, 1986 - November 13, 2024

Patrick Robert Miller, 38 years old, of Houston, Texas, passed away November 13, 2024 from a car accident. He is survived by his daughter Ryder Mae Trochez Miller, mother Jannis Kopeck Miller, father Doug Miller, his sisters Angela Miller Guerrero and Rose Miller, his half sister Mukisa Miller and half brother Magezi Miller and his grandmother Jeanne Kopeck, as well as several nieces, nephew, and many close cousins, aunts and uncles.

Patrick was one of the most talented individuals. He was a true artist. Patrick excelled in the areas of art, music, and tattoo artistry. He worked very hard to get his brand “grizzie713” off the ground. His t-shirt designs, art boards and designer tennis shoes were always creative and innovative. He took pleasure in sharing his art with others. Music has always been a part of Patrick’s life. He began singing in the children’s choir at a young age. He was always writing flows to rap. He has been on stage and in the studio many times. He even made his own CD. Patrick is known best for his tattoo artistry. He has been doing tattoos all of his adult life. He has done anything from a small music note to an entire sleeve and more. He was in the process of creating his own ink.

Patrick will always be remembered for his contagious smile, sense of humor, ability to talk for hours, and great big heart. Patrick had many friends along the way and managed to keep in touch with almost all of them. He traveled between Houston, Austin, and San Antonio quite often. He was always on the move. Now he has moved on to a better place. Rest in peace, Patrick.
