He was a kind and loving husband to his wife, Maria Del Roble Alvarado, to whom they have been married for 26 years. He was also an amazing father to his daughters Maria D. Alvarado and Mayela F. “ *To the best Brother a sister could have. I will miss your smile, your great attitude your love of life. My only solace is that you are running in Heaven playing sports and dancing with our Dad. I know that you are pain free but I am not. I feel a little less whole today. I will find comfort in our Lord. This is your time, this is your journey, this is your story. I love you Brother!!!
